Public Bodies'

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AWARDS

2022

The Ministry of Finance and the Public Service (MoFPS) in collaboration with Private Sector Organisation of Jamaica (PSOJ) established the annual Public Bodies Corporate Governance Awards for Public Bodies. These awards will be applicable to those Public Bodies which are governed by the Public Bodies Management and Accountability Act (PBMAA) and the Corporate Governance Framework for Public Bodies (CGF).

Award Objectives

- To promote awareness and adherence to the principles of good corporate governance.
- To encourage improvements in the standard of corporate governance disclosure.
- To recognise Public Bodies that have established and maintained high standards of corporate governance disclosures and practices

A. Eligibility for Entry

All Public Bodies governed by the (PBMAA), namely:

- Statutory Bodies or Authorities (with body corporate status)
- Government Owned Companies

B. Award Evaluation

The Event will cover four (4) category awards and three (3) special awards; the former will determine the top 5 public bodies from which the overall winner will be selected based on a different adjudication procedure. A questionnaire has been developed in order to elicit responses in relation to the categories. The completed questionnaire will be evaluated by the judging panel using the evaluation scheme which is based on the assignment of 100 points, as allocated among the 4 categories as noted below:

Categories	Scores
Board composition, functions & structure	25%
Corporate governance policies, procedures and practices	30%
Compliance and disclosure of information	20%
Risk Measurement and Internal Controls	25%
Total	100%

C. Award Categories

➤ BEST OVERALL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AWARD

➤ SPECIAL AWARDS as noted hereunder:

Best Annual Report Award
Most Improved Public Body
Best Website Award

➤ FOUR (4) DEDICATED CATEGORY AWARDS:

1. BOARD COMPOSITION, FUNCTIONS & STRUCTURE

This award aims to identify good corporate governance practices articulated in the CGF especially in relation to the separation of roles of the CEO and Board Chair, Board diversity, competency of Board members, establishment of Board Committees, and conduct of orientation and training of Board members as well as board evaluation.

2. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE POLICIES, PROCEDURES AND PRACTICES

This award seeks to assess the extent to which specific recommended corporate governance policies, procedures and practices in relation to the operation of the Board have been implemented. These include Board Charter, Corporate Social Responsibility policy, appraisal of the CEO and availability of preparatory documents for board meetings.

3. COMPLIANCE AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

This award will examine whether the Public Body has been compliant with the statutory requirements of the PBMAA, inclusive of the development of Corporate Plans, Annual Reports and the contents therein.

4. RISK MEASUREMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

This award will assess whether the Public Body has appropriate internal control policies and systems such as a Risk Management Policy and Internal Audit functions.

D. Entry Procedures

Each Public Body will receive the relevant questionnaire (application form) by the Friday, June 3, 2022. Questionnaires must be completed and returned to the PSOJ by Friday, September 2, 2022 at 4:00p.m. together with two (2) copies of the annual report for the financial year ending March 31, 2022. Reports will be treated confidentially. Hard and soft copies (soft copies to be sent to (Cheryl@psoj.org)).

E. Review & Judging Procedures

The awards review will be led by the Private Sector Organisation of Jamaica and the judging panel will comprise representatives from the PSOJ Corporate Governance Committee, the MoFPS and other independent private sector leaders in the field of corporate governance. For all categories, there will be two levels of review:

I. Quality Review

An assessment will be done on the quality and standard of presentation and disclosure of corporate governance information in annual reports. Where relevant, other publicly available information may also be taken into account, for example the Public Body website. The emphasis will be on voluntary disclosures that exceed the minimum statutory and regulatory requirements.

II. Compliance Review

A check will be conducted on compliance with the mandatory corporate governance disclosure requirements under the PBMAA, CGF and the Companies Act where applicable.

After completion of the above review, the judging panel will shortlist the top five (5) candidates for interviews starting Monday, October 3, 2022 to determine the final winners. Interviews will assist in clarifying areas of ambiguity and substantiate documents submitted. At least one (1) Officer who signed the submitted application form must also attend the interview. Weighting of the final score will be allocated as: Application (40%), Interview (25%), Annual Report (20%) and Website (15%).

F. Judging Criteria

The judging criteria for the main categories include the following:

- Overall presentation.
- Promptness of reporting.

Quality of disclosure in relation to the following information:

- Corporate governance statement and practices.
- Board structure and functioning including board composition and diversity.
- Remuneration policy and details of directors' and senior management's remuneration packages.
- Internal controls and risk management
- Corporate social responsibility.
- Conflict of interest and connected transactions and relationships.
- Other disclosures relating to, e.g., board committees, internal audit, shareholder communications and investor relations.
- Ease of identifying compliance information.

The judges will also take into account other publicly available information that reflects on the standard of particular Public Bodies' corporate governance. The decision of the judges will be final. In the event that the judges are unable to find entries of sufficient merit, they may, at their discretion, withhold some awards.

G. Award Ceremony

- The Awards Ceremony should be attended by all applicants and other guests and will be held on Thursday, December 1, 2022.
- Media representatives will be invited to cover the Awards Ceremony as a part of the public relations arrangement.
