NOVEMBER 2022

The All Jamaica Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased by 0.4 per cent for November 2022. This was mainly attributed to the 2.0 per cent rise in the index for the 'Food and Non-Alcoholic Beverages' division. All classes within the division increased for the review period, with the main contributor being 'Vegetables, tubers, plantains, cooking bananas and pulses' which rose by 6.5 per cent. Also impacting the movement of the CPI was the 'Education' division, which had a 1.7 per cent rise in its index due to increased fees for the Caribbean Secondary Examination Certificate (CSEC). The index for the division 'Personal Care, Social Protection, and Miscellaneous Goods and Services' increased by 0.6 per cent, impacted by higher prices for some personal care products and services. The overall rate of inflation was however tempered by a 2.4 per cent fall in the index for the division 'Housing, Water, Electricity, Gas and Other Fuels' due to lower electricity rates and a 0.2 per cent decline in the 'Transport' division's index as a result of lower petrol prices.

The point-to-point inflation rate was 10.3 per cent while that for the fiscal year-to-date was 6.2 per cent.

The index for the 'Food and Non-Alcoholic Beverages' increased by 14.3 per cent. Within this division, the index for the group 'Food' rose by 14.4 per cent. This sub-class was mainly impacted by higher prices for tomato, carrot, cabbage and onion.

The index for 'Restaurant and Accommodation Services' moved upwards by 20.2 per cent and was primarily due to a 20.3 per cent increase in the index for the group 'Food and Beverage Serving Services'. This increase was due to higher prices for meals consumed away from home.

For the division 'Housing, Water, Electricity, Gas and Fuels', the upward movement of 7.0 per cent was mainly attributed to an 11.0 per cent increase in the index for the group 'Electricity, Gas and Other Fuels'. The Office of Utilities Regulation (OUR) approved an increase in electricity rates for the Jamaica Public Service Company Limited based on the Annual Review and Extraordinary Rate Review for 2022, resulting in higher customers' bills for October 2022.
