PUBLIC SECTOR DEBATE COMPETITION 2025

The Transformation Implementation Unit (TIU) is accepting registration for the Public Sector Debate Competition 2025. The competition provides an avenue for all public sector workers to contribute to the discussion on building a more effective and efficient public sector.

The deadline for registration is March 28, 2025, and all public sector entities are invited to participate. Each entity is eligible to enter one team of three main speakers and two reserves. Teams will receive training to enhance the quality of the debates.

The competition will run from April to July 2025 and in addition to intellectual bragging rights, debaters will receive prizes throughout the staging of the event with the finalists receiving substantial prizes and recognition.

Details on the competition are available on the TIU's website www.publicsectortransformation.gov.jm.

Please bring this circular to the attention of all employees.
