PUBLIC SECTOR DEBATE COMPETITION 2024

The Transformation Implementation Unit (TIU) is hosting the “Public Sector Debate Competition” for all public sector workers. The competition provides an avenue for public sector workers to contribute to the discussion on building a more effective and efficient public sector.

The period for registration is March 1-29, 2024, and all public sector entities are invited to participate. Each entity is eligible to enter one team of three persons and two reserves. Teams will receive training to enhance the quality of the debates.

The competition will run from May to July 2024 and in addition to intellectual bragging rights, debaters will receive prizes throughout the staging of the event with the finalists receiving substantial prizes and recognition.

Details on the competition are available on the TIU’s website at www.publicsectortransformation.gov.jm
