PUBLIC SECTOR DEBATE COMPETITION 2026

Registration is now open for the annual Public Sector Debate Competition for all public sector workers and will close on March 27, 2026.

The competition, staged by the Transformation Implementation Unit (TIU), provides an avenue for public sector workers to contribute to the discussions on building a more effective and efficient public sector.

All public sector entities are invited to participate, and each entity is eligible to enter one team of three (3) persons and two (2) reserves. Teams will receive training to enhance the quality of the debates.

The competition will run from April to July 2026 with prizes awarded throughout and substantial prizes and recognition for finalists.

Visit the TIU's website at www.publicsectortransformation.gov.jm for details on the competition.

Please bring this circular to the attention of all employees.
